

The Lord, who is the essence in all hearts, bent the great bow with His right hand. Lo! With a thundering noise, rumbling in all quarters, it snapped asunder. Rāma broke the mighty bow of Mahādeva.